

Line Locate Request

Per the Texas Damage Prevention Law effective as of 1998, the law requires excavators and demolishers to call a notification center at least 48 hours excluding holidays and weekends before they begin their work. It also requires owner/operators of underground facilities to mark locations or supply information that will enable excavators and demolishers to locate underground utilities and facilities.

Please be specific with the location and give as much detail as possible.

Date of Notification: _____

Customer Name: _____

Contact Phone Number: _____

Location and Reason for Request:

Customer Signature: _____